A Tucson Tradition Since 1922!

The oldest Mexican restaurant in the United States, El Charro Café of Tucson, AZ has long been considered one of America's top Mexican food destinations with acclaim coming from the likes of Bon Appétit, Gourmet Magazine, USA Today, The Food Network, Travel Channel, and The NY & LA Times to name a few. El Charro Café was founded by Monica Flin in 1922. Monica, whose family came from France to build the San Agustín Cathedral for the Catholic church in the mid 1800's was an aspiring chef and her El Charro Café infused her French cuisine background with the rich culture of Sonora, Mexico. Besides being known for being the birthplace of the iconic chimichanga, El Charro Café specialties include their famous sun-dried Carne Seca, Enchiladas, Tacos and Handmade Tamales.
